A Letter from the Executive Director of the St. James Court Art Show

"The arts offer more than escapism—they provide hope and bring joy, positively impacting our daily lives. They can also serve as an antidote to times of chaos, having healing benefits and improve individual well-being." - Unknown

The St. James Court Art Show is grateful for the over 600 artists that have chosen to return to Louisville, Kentucky for our 65th annual art show. These artists come from 46 states and Canada and are anxious to return to Louisville for this autumn tradition. The artists from Canada are not able to join us in 2021 due to the border being closed. We certainly look forward to their return in 2022.

The St. James Court Art Show has become so much more. The economic impact is far reaching.

We are often asked who benefits from the St. James Court Art Show? Here are a few highlights:

- The annual economic impact for Metro Louisville is over $5 million (Louisville Convention and Visitors Bureau).
- Total artist sales equate to about $2.5 million annually (Kentucky Department of Revenue).
- Numerous neighborhood schools, churches and institutions use parking as a major fundraiser during the art show and usually raise $50-$60,000 each.
- The art show's neighborhood associations' annual contributions to the Old Louisville neighborhood and various charities are about $250,000-$300,000 per year.
- Lastly, through our high school art show competition The St. James Court Art Show awards approximately $50,000 in scholarship money to high school students annually.

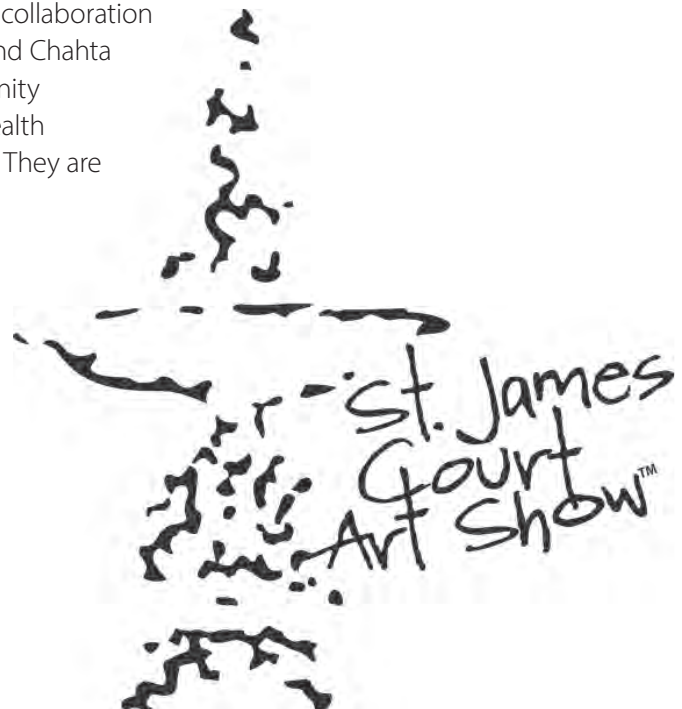

Even more important is the building of relationships. It is a gathering of creative minds and the community. Because together we are better. New at St. James Court Art Show this year is The Old Walnut Street Affair, a three-day pop-up installation hosted in collaboration with The Speed Art Museum, the St. James Court Art Show, and Chahta Noir (Shauntrice Martin) who is Speed Museum's first Community Connections Artist-in-Residence. Park DuValle Community Health Center will be on site all show hours distributing vaccinations. They are located on Magnolia Ave at the Conrad Caldwell House.

None of this would be possible without you, whether you're a local or you traveled to Louisville, an artist or attendee, volunteer or vendor, we're happy you're here and thank you for supporting the St. James Court Art Show!

Sincerely,

Howard Rosenberg

MAYOR

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR
LOUISVILLE, KENTUCKY

Greetings, and welcome to Louisville!

Whether you have come from near or far, on behalf of the city of Louisville, I would like to welcome you to our city and to the 65th annual St. James Court Art Show.

The St. James Court Art Show is a one-of-a-kind, free event that began as fundraiser for the neighborhood association and now years later has become one of the premier art shows in the country, where we will welcome thousands of guests to our city.

The environment at the St. James Court Art Show is second to none. In Old Louisville, you will be surrounded by the largest collection of Victorian homes in the United States. The sprawling canopy trees delicately preserved over many years make the event intimate and inviting. The people that you pass, in their diversity and enthusiasm, will bring a smile to your face. There is great energy in Louisville this time of year and the Art Show is absolutely one reason for that!

While in Louisville, we hope you take an opportunity to explore our top-notch facilities, one-of-a-kind attractions, one of the best food and beverage scenes in the world and lots of places to have fun. Louisville has many distinct neighborhoods, like Old Louisville, with so much to offer. From Museum Row on Main Street to many new bourbon experiences, Jefferson Memorial Forest (the largest city-owned forest in America) and Churchill Downs – there is something for everyone.

Thank you to the volunteers, sponsors, and residents of Old Louisville who give many, many hours to embrace this national treasure we have. And thank you for visiting the St. James Court Art Show. I hope you enjoy your time in Louisville. Come back soon!

Sincerely,

Greg Fischer
Mayor

LOUISVILLE METRO COUNCIL
OFFICE OF PRESIDENT DAVID JAMES

It is with great joy that I welcome you back to the St. James Court Art Festival, taking place in the heart of Louisville, in the Historic Old Louisville Neighborhood!

The St. James Court Art Show is a local and tourist favorite that attracts over 650 artist and craftsmen from all over the nation. On average, about 250,000 people come to Historic Old Louisville to experience the art show every year. It is consistently rated as one of the top 10 art shows in the nation by Sunshine Art Magazine. I am very proud to have the St. James Court Art Show in my council district for many reasons, but mostly because it brings the community together. I'm really looking forward to attending the art show this year and I hope to see you there!

Metro Council President
District 6 Councilman
David A. James

"As the longest-running art show in the nation, the St. James Art Show ranks as one of the top three festivals for Louisville's nationally recognized tourism industry. With an economic impact of over $5.1 million, the show has a long history of supporting the local tourism economy and attracting guests from across the nation to this highly anticipated art event."

- Andy Beshear, Kentucky Governor

"The first weekend of October welcomes the fall tourism season by showcasing talented artists to more than 250,000 patrons. For 65 years, the St James Art Show has been a highly anticipated outdoor attraction for locals and guests to come together in celebration of the arts and its cultural impact on the Louisville community."

- Mike Berry, Kentucky Tourism Arts and Heritage Cabinet Secretary

"The St. James Court Art Show holds a special place in the heart of many Louisvillians as an annual October tradition. This treasured event is set against an unmatched backdrop of Old Louisville's living and breathing architectural history, taking in the largest collection of restored Victorian homes in the country. This time-honored tradition of locals, visitors and hundreds of unique artists gathering in a historic neighborhood make this festival truly stand out year after year as a must-see event. I couldn't be prouder to welcome all of our guests to celebrate the 65th anniversary of Louisville's lively and colorful St. James Court Art Show."

- Cleo Battle, President & CEO, Louisville Tourism

Special Thanks to Connie Light

Connie Light has been involved with the Art Show since it expanded onto Belgravia Court in the early sixties and has been a leader of the Belgravia Section since 1978 taking over for neighbor and art teacher John Dillehay. Connie has handled artist affairs for Belgravia Court for almost 45 years and the 2021 show marks her hand-off of the leadership role to Rick Serpka. During those 40+ years she has worked year-round with members of all of the neighborhoods that make the Show what it is today.

Connie has always listened to the feedback from both the public and artists. Belgravia Court was the first section of the overall show to institute a formal jury review screening process for artists wishing to exhibit, and also awarding prizes by an independent jury of local artists. Artist wanted to ensure they were participating in more than a street fair and all sections eventually instituted an artist jury process leading to more national recognition for our Art Show. Belgravia also demonstrated that high caliber artists who exhibit in the top national shows were more inclined to participate by initiating a flat fee per booth model which the entire Art Show also adopted three years later.

Connie is also an art patron, and the walls and shelves of her home on Belgravia Court showcase a collection of art and objects she purchased each year as her favorite works of each Art Show since the sixties through today.

She has been dedicated to a mission of bringing a wide array of visual and texture arts to the patrons of the Show. She loves the fact that this is a free event where everyone, and especially families, can explore works of art not seen anywhere else, and view the rich architectural history of the neighborhood. Connie was recognized by the St James Art Show as the first recipient of an award to individuals in Louisville who excel in support and promotion of the Arts Community.

Connie's passion and dedication to the artists and to her beloved Belgravia Court is one of the reasons the St. James Court Art Show celebrates being named the #1 Fine Arts Show in the country for a decade as well as recognized as The Best Show of all time.

Like the historic Art Show, Connie Light is a treasure.

St. James Court Art Show 2021 Print

The St. James Court Art Show selected Mark D. Bird, renowned watercolor artist and nephew of St. James Court Art Show founder, Malcolm Bird, to create a new print series, "A Sense of Place: A Collection of Fine Art Prints". The second print in the series is entitled, "The inescapable charm of the Cawein House, ca 1958."

The print series will feature the highest-quality giclee fine art reproductions in signed and numbered editions of 100 prints. These reproductions will be printed on 100% cotton rag archival paper, using pigmented inks which offer lightfastness up to 75 years. Each print will also receive an original pencil remarque by the artist to assure its authenticity. Stephen W. Brown will contribute his original research into Old Louisville and St. James Court history by writing about the subject of each year's edition. Each print in this collection will be released on an annual basis for a period of ten years. Prints can be purchased at St. James Court Art Show for $200 or online at stjamescourtartshow.com. Specific print numbers are available on a first-come, first-served basis.

Artist Statement

The subject of the second print in the collection "A Sense of Place", will always live in a special place in my heart.

At the holiday season, for many years during my childhood, my family and I would visit my uncle, Malcolm Bird in his newly renovated home at 1436 St. James Court. He and his friends, Bob Smith and Jim Perry purchased this grand residence in 1955. Its condition was deplorable, by anyone's standards and through their collective vision and personal tireless work, they transformed it into a place of grandeur of uncompromised style and elegance.

Having familiarity with only the interior of this magnificent setting as a child, I thought it was a natural fit, to now be able to translate my memories and emotions into the second print in our series. Now, it was no small order to paint an emotion, but I knew my vivid memories of that glorious environment would serve me well.

The Portuguese word "saudade" translates into...an intense longing or nostalgia for the past. "Bittersweet" would be the current English expression. I most certainly called upon my past experiences and my longing to return to the Cawein

House, when I began this painting.

The scene depicted in this painting is that of the interior of the living room on the first floor, as though the viewer was standing at the fireplace mantel. On the wall above the mantel, was a surface of antiqued mirror tiles, which reflected the opposite wall of this room. On this wall, hung in salon style, was the beginnings of a collection of works by European masters. These works were acquired by these young men during tours of Europe, starting in 1952. Sitting directly in front of this mirrored wall was a pair of French Empire gilt bronze winged victory candelabra from Paris, a small bronze bust of Plato, collected in Florence, Italy and a French brass carriage clock, also acquired in Paris. Hanging from the ceiling was an antique French crystal and bronze candle chandelier. It was raised and lowered by means of a pulley system to change the candles!

I can easily understand, now, that experiencing this environment as a child, would leave an indelible impression on the visual world I was to inhabit as an adult. And I'm so thankful for the times spent in this magical place.

The work that these three young men performed on this house led to work on other homes on St. James, which then led to trailblazing work on Belgravia Court. This work was the seed of a preservation movement, which resulted in the creation of an Historic Preservation District known as Old Louisville in 1974.

I am forever grateful for my time spent in the presence of these visionaries.

Old Walnut Street Affair

New at St. James Court Art Show this year is The Old Walnut Street Affair, a three-day pop-up installation hosted in collaboration with The Speed Art Museum, the St. James Court Art Show, and Chahta Noir (Shauntrice Martin) who is Speed Museum's first Community Connections Artist-in-Residence.

The Old Walnut Street Affair gives visitors the opportunity to walk through an installment reminiscent of Old Walnut Street. In the days when segregation split the city, Walnut Street between Sixth and Thirteenth streets and the surrounding blocks were host to a booming Black business district. The Old Walnut Street Affair is open daily and showcases a variety of local Black artists, Randy's Record Store, and a family-friendly speakeasy hosted by Mr. SpreadLove at 2pm each day of the art show. Prints, apparel, and more are available for sale.

Important Patron Purchasing Tips

Exhibitor Buttons, signs and booth cards indicate official St. James Court Art Show Exhibitors! Our artists are required to wear the button and to display the booth card so our art show patrons know they are purchasing from a legitimate St. James Court Art Show artist.

- Be aware that vendors who have set up booths on private lawns, private parking lots, or in private homes are NOT legitimate St. James Court Art Show artists/ vendors.
- When placing Custom Orders, do not pay in cash.
- Take business cards or other contact information from the artist if you are placing an order and discuss your delivery expectations before leaving the booth.
- Always get a receipt for each of your purchases.

Souvenir t-shirts are available at Booth #SJ-225 across from the St. James Court Fountain.

St. James Court Scholarship Competition

In addition to connecting artists and art lovers, The St. James Court Art Show has had a scholarship program in place since 1978. The St. James Court Association established the scholarships in 1978 with one $1,000 art scholarship. In 1981 a $500 scholarship was added, and in 1985 a third scholarship was started thanks to contribution from the Fourth Street Association. Since 1978, more than half a million dollars in scholarships has been awarded to high school art students

In 2019, the St. James Court Scholarship program made some significant some changes to the program. The most exciting new addition is the Gallery Showing of all student's art entries at the University of Louisville Cressman Center for Visual Arts Gallery located at 100 E. Main St. Louisville KY 40202.

2021

The Hite Art Institute is pleased to host the 2021 St. James Court Scholarship Foundation's Highschool Scholarship Competition. Open to area HS students pursuing a degree in Fine Arts, the competition offers students a chance at a scholarship to attend the University of Louisville.

This is the 49th year since the first scholarship was awarded by the St. James Court Association and it continues to grow to help young adults achieve their goals in the arts. The 2021 competition total awards are $45,000.00

The Exhibition will be on view through September 24, 2021. The Schneider Hall Galleries are open Monday-Friday 9am-4:30 pm.

St. James Court Art Show Named #1 Best Fine Art And Design Show Of The Past 10 Years by Sunshine Artist Magazine!

"We are truly humbled by this honor. Credit goes to all of the people, both past and present, that have made the St. James Court Art Show the success that it is today. This includes all of the previous executive directors, section directors, neighborhood residents, volunteers, Metro Louisville personnel, professional support staff, and most importantly the artists that have participated over the years. Since the show started in 1957 the artists have been our focus. Without them, there would be no art show."

- Howard Rosenberg

St. James Court Art Show Executive Director

"We know the importance of giving honor where honor is due, and that is where the 200 Best of the past 10 years came from."

- Diana Jones

Sunshine Artist Publisher

The St. James Court Art Show has been awarded not just one, but two awards from Sunshine Artist magazine. The renowned art show has been named the #1 "Best Fine Art and Design of the Past 10 years" by artist subscribers of the magazine. St. James Court Art Show has also been awarded the #3 "All-Time Favorite Best of Show of All Time", as voted on by Sunshine Artist magazine artists.

The "Best Fine Art and Design of the Past 10 years" is released based on Sunshine Artist's 200 Best Shows. Artists and craftspeople are typically asked to cast their votes each April for the 200 Best shows list. They may list up to 10 shows they attended the previous year where they grossed the highest sales. Due to the pandemic's effect on the industry, Sunshine Artist decided to look at the last decade. In 2019, St. James Court Art Show was ranked the #1 "Best Fine Art and Design Show" on Sunshine Artists' 200 Best Shows list.

Receiving the #3 ranking of the "All Time Favorite Best of Show of All Time" is even more impressive when one considers the voters, which are the artists themselves. Over 307 shows were nominated for this honor.

"This show is hands down the best run/managed show in the country. The sales are off the hook, the crowds lovely, the venue is beautiful, but most of all it is the dedicated management and volunteers who make this show a treasure. There is no other show in the country that comes close to St. James."
